

Adult Learners' Week

NEWS
FROM

Lifelong Learning – Yes!

Learning and discovering new things not only lifts us out of that rut – It can stop us falling in it in the first place! And the first week in September is a great time to challenge ourselves, to step outside that comfort zone and learn something new. It's Adult Learners' Week.

Effective communication is the key to success in any relationship – business or personal. Whether you're a professional, a uni student, parent or retiree, learning to express yourself effectively opens a whole new world of possibilities.

During Adult Learners' Week your local Toastmaster Club, <Name Club>, is offering all guests free admission to their demonstration meeting on <date>, <time> at <venue and address>. Come and see what fun Toastmasters have while they learn. Ring <name and mobile> for more information or visit our website at <webaddress>.

Toastmasters helps people to:

- Give better sales presentations
- Effectively present ideas
- Conduct meetings
- Listen better
- Organise teams
- Hone their management skills
- Offer constructive feedback
- Develop their leadership potential

Toastmasters is the best way to learn skills that will help you be more successful. You'll be a better listener. You'll easily lead teams and conduct meetings. You'll comfortably give and receive constructive evaluations. If you already have some or all of these skills you can enhance them in Toastmasters

So take the challenge and learn something new!

Take the Challenge of Toastmasters.

You'll be so glad you did!
